A STUDY IN MATHEMATICS.

greatest in history; but, as one of our

they appear to help it, vaudeville".

nulti-millionaire.

Keith knew.

the Y. M. C. A. school.

The night schools in Gary are having a wonderful success. The enroll-steel workers, and this is exclusive of

The excavation at Panama was the

SOUTH BEND NEWS-TIMES

THE NEWS-TIMES PRINTING COMPANY. $16 West Colfax Avenue, South Bend, Indiana Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at South Bend, Indiana

BY CARRIER. Daily and Sunday in advance, per Daily and Sunday by the week ... 120 year ......... $5.00 Daily, single copy ................20

Daily and Sunday in advance, per year ......... $4.00 Deily, in advance, per year ..... $3.00

If your name appears in the telephone directory you can telephone your want "ad" to The News-Times office and a bill will be mailed after its nsertion. Home phone 1151; Bell phone 2100.

CONE, LORENZEN & WOODMAN Foreign Advertising Representatives.

Advertising Building, Chicago 255 Fifth Avenue, New York.

SOUTH BEND, INDIANA, APRIL 4, 1914

STAGE STANDARDS. William A. Brady, cheatrical man- they shouted, tall."

less than the genuine article. The greater than the well defined differmethods. It is a little different with there. the theater. The public is neither so | The progressives of Michigan will bility of bad men blaming their luck, wise nor so critical. And then there place complete tickets in the field this their circumstances or their parentage. is the temperamental element.

genious and liberal advertising that a have leaders who are not afraid. Whit- men and women who move in good sogreat moral lesson is taught by a cer- ney Watkins, the probable progres- ciety and enjoy some degree of educatain play it patiently swallows any- sive candidate for governor, was out- in fine houses, are guilty of these huthing to get the lesson, and the audi- spoken in his opposition to alignment millating sins is known by everybody. ence goes home feeling that it must be with the old political parties. uplifted, regardless of the smoky taste in its mouth. Mr. Brady confirms the impression received by many minds that playwrights are striving for successes rather than great plays.

known as a dramatic success and a Mississippi river. great play to the playwright is that This one stream carries out into the one gets the money and other may gulf every twelve-month more good and frequently by those who do not fall. The success "gets by" with its earth than Goethals' largest force think right on other things, and more near virtue while the great play with could turn over with spades, working its real virtue must wait for its re- in sandy loam in eight-hour shifts the and sarcasm of all who know her. As ward until the glamour of the counter- year through. feit has worn away and the light of in- If one year's erosion of this father and it is vain and foolish to try and telligence shines through to guide ap- of waters could be spread a food deep

Mr. Brady denounces sensationalism, miles; in a century and a half it would sex plays and muck raking as prostitut- re-surface an area as large as Ohio. ing the stage to unworthy purposes, And it is only one of many streams mercy of God that we are what we the main object of which, of course, which are steadily eating the heart out are, and have what we have. If we is getting the money. The curiosity of our continent. of the public is aroused by these in- At the rate at which you buy at the homes, as a rule there is no particutimate exposures of human relations. florists's earth for your flower pots, the lar merit due us. We are all sinners It is natural for human beings to see value of the Mississippi's annual ab- and deserve God's just judgment. themselves as they are, and this the straction would beggar John D., Morclass of plays denounced by Mr. Brady gan, Baker and several other pluto- whatever by the grace of God we may promises to show them. The tradi- crats. tional office of the stage is to "hold | Yet we let it go as calmly as if its the mirror up to nature", but certainly loss weren't worth a passing thought. sinner." Even those who live the it was not the criginal intention to use To be sure, we build dikes; but nearest to God know only too well of sport to be lost to city life. The waters. Uncle Sam's the boy whose fun we had with it as kids in the job this will have to be. country we all treasure among the Boost the Newlands bill. happiest of childhood recollections. It's therefore fine that some cities are re- THE SECRET OF A BIG SUCCESS. Jesus states in the text, "He that escaped taxation." He asked if the Joyable as it used to be.

THE SPELLING BEE.

Really it's too bad that so many of our supposedly educated people have neglected to learn how to spell, In the course of a year we see thousands of letters to the editor, many written by college and high school graduates; but it's pathetic how few of them the Daily News gave prizes in a largely attended and most interesting spelling bee, a score or more of bright men and women fell down on such simple tests as "extirpate", "lithograph" * plutocracy", "Peaceable" and the like -words which every one who has had a fair chance in school should know. to spell-they simply had neglected to learn how. Next time an evening seems dull at home and the youngsters are wondering what there is to do, line them up, offer a prize and set them to a test in spelling. It's as much sport as cheap novels or cards; and when they chall have gone through, they will ### have learned something useful, MAKE PAUL PAY.

When you ship a carload of freight into one of the large cities, do you get, in free terminal service, a rebate equal in value to the whole amount of the ment is 3,687, mostly foreign born freight charge?

You do not.

Why don't you? The answer is simple: You haven't The discovery of a ten-foot skeleton a pull. - Louis Brandeis makes it clear that in those days. But they had nothing ing laid down while fording a stream. some of the big shippers have pulls, on the present. There are some big The Standard Oil has one. The steel Irishmen now. trust has one. The rail highways are not yet open on terms of equality to all who have to use them. Privilege an event of interest to every baseball is still barricaded behind preferred fan. In his day he was the idol of warehouses, with its machine guns diamond patrons. trained to repel invaders.

Preferential treatment at a railway The sane regulation of boxing in terminal is, of course, a disguised rob- Wisconsin has netted the state $19,- Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Livingston. Mrs. the Panama canal.—New York Her- turning out and shipping tons of bing of Peter to pay Paul-Peter being | 000 in revenue and abolished brutalithe 85 per cent and Paul the 15.

If the railroads want more income, let them first make Paul pay what he It is now expected that Frederic week. should before asking to be allowed to Meyerhaeuser will get well. The paassess a higher charge on poor, penal- tient has plenty of material to build

NO FUSION IN MICHIGAN.

The much touted reconciliation of and comfort in being within eightyprogressives and republicans will have five miles of a regional bank. to get along without the progressives longer. "We will stand at Armaged- ammunition

* ON THE GOLDEN TEXT *

BY OUR OWN PREACHER

* SEVEN MINUTE SERMON *

Lesson: Christ's Table Talk .- Luke 14:7-24. Golden Text: Every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.-Luke 14:11. EXALITATION AND ABATEMENT.

1. Our Moral Disposition IS Under Our Own Control. To deny free will is to deny consciousness; if we cannet control our own moral disposition then there cannot be any morality, because the word itself implies responsidon until the second coming of Christ,' bility. If we are the creatures of circumstances, then vain are the laws ager, says the theater should be placed This happened at a conference of cf God and man. If heredity and enon as high a plane as baseball. "So leaders of the new party held in Lan- vironment are the creatures alike of courteous deference to our possible great is the permanent theater attend- sing and not only in the picturesque circumstances, conduct and moral ance," said Mr. Brady, "that we 'get language quoted, but in less florid but responsibility. The philosophers who away' with plays that are comparative no less earnest words these leaders de- advocate this theory do so in spite of failures. You can't do that in base- clared there would be no fusion with their own experience that they are the republican party. And they seem- responsible for their conduct. Every The comparison used by Mr. Brady ed to have reason for the stand they that he is to blame for being a sinis unique and forceful. Guaged by took. The republican party, they de- ner, and that he could have been a the standards of baseball it is not dif- clared, remains split over the initiative Christian if he had so minded. The ficult to understand what he means, and referendum, the principle of direct choice, and not because they have Baseball managers know they cannot primaries and the tariff. These are been made so by circumstances over "get away" or "get by" with anything irreconcilable differences. They are which they have no control. They may, by taking the proper steps, become humble, Christ-like followers of public is its own capable critic and is ences which exist between the pro- God, and enjoy the glorious exaltasupported by the baseball writers in gressives and the democrats, and there tion of the sons of God. It is this reinsisting upon good play and clean is no present prospect of a fusion sponsibility for our own dispositions and conduct which makes sin so sinful, and which takes away the possi-

2. Self-Exaltation Brings Humiliayear, from governor to coroner. They tion, Boasting and pride are two of If the public can be convinced by in- are united and enthusiastic and they the most contemptible sins. That some Pride is both sin and folly of the worst fraud, trying to palm off on the people what is not so, trying to appear better or greater or richer or wiser than the facts warrant; it is folly because spised by all right-thinking people, seats, particularly by persons in her own as other than we are. Pride is a lifeon dry land it would top 265 square long lie, that some people live. 3. There Is Need for Us to Be Humble. The best of us have nothing to boast of. It is by the grace and There is not one of us who has not been untrue to himself in the past, be at present. Not one of us who does not need to pray the publican's they don't stop the outgo; sometimes their need of humility and that they should walk softly before God. Wil-· · | liam Wilberforce, the great liberator The only preventive is to reforest the of the slaves, said when dying, "With The spelling bee is too useful a form watersheds and impound the head- regard to myself, I have nothing to and not being afraid of work are what and it is true. Exaltation. When it comes to mor- the information at the rate of $1 a als, spiritual character, or truly spir- name. Pastoriza replied as follows: His first theater was in a small itual experience, the way to go up "I have your letter offering to seis first to go down. He that hum- cure assessments of personal proproom. He could afford only one usher bleth himself shall be exalted. When erty and charge $1 per name for and one white uniform for that one a man takes his proper position, un- same. In reply will state that this usher. But every night Ma Keith derstands his limitations, sees how city has ceased to act in the capacity washed and ironed and mended that little he is, and takes the lowest seat, of a thief. We do not tax personal sensible and necessary in New York show a working acquaintance with the one uniform, so that it was always seat in the higher class. No man, spotlessly clean; and twice each day it is said, is a proper judge in his own Up in St. Paul the other night, where Pa Keith and Ma Keith took brooms case, even in human affairs, and this and mops and dust rags and scoured is the principle upon which legal tesevery speck of dust and dirt out of the is especially true as between God and our souls, God alone can permanently The rule of cleanliness didn't end exalt us. We cannot crown ourthere. On the stage everything had to be clean, too; clean in appearance, in our character, which crowns a man souls to hell. If you will read 'Prog- self and doesn't mind the fact that clean in suggestion. It was Ben's with glory and honor. Humility gives ress and Poverty, by Henry George, curfew there is wild license else-God the opportunity of exalting us, you will get a line on what I am where.—Chicago Record-Herald, It wasn't that they were too stupid idea that more Americans want clean and in the last analysis a man's posi- talking about." entertainment than want smut or dirt tion, for time and eternity, is what The resident of Houston, then, has or vulgarity. Sticking to this notion God makes it. Let us not then trouble this peculiar moral advantage over a man can ever rob us. Let us now feel Pastoriza .- San Francisco Etar. our own littleness, humbling our-There's always a field for the man selves before God. who knows-and who works and (Copyright, 1914, by E. S. Davidson.)

Twenty Years Ago

Reminders From the Columns of The Daily Times.

in Ireland shows that there were giants Springs, Ark. The horse she was rid- congress of that power.

The passing of "Rube" Waddell is the centractor's hands.

tained 45 of their young friends. turned from a visit to Pekin, Ill. Simon has been here several days. Rev. Henry Webb Johnson returned from Goshen, where he assisted Dr. Vannuys in revival meetings for a

MAY MARCH IN PARADE. ASHINGTON, April 4.-Women government clerks were notified today that they could march in the suf-

There will be a sense of security frage parade on May 9. NEW YORK .-- Fred Walters, the bluest man in the world, arrived here from Plymouth, England, on his way of Michigan, at least for this year, and The jingos have been unusually quiet to join a circus. He has a red musonly Billy Sunday knows how much for a few days. Must be collecting tache. "Valvular heart trouble gave to advise him. A distinguished replied the prisoner, sullenly. me my indigo complexion." said Wal- clergyman, a noted sociologist, a Then the court laughed, and it took

THE MELTING POT

COME! TAKE POTLUCK WITH US.

THROUGH THE YEAR WITH LONGFELLOW.

Oh, did we but know when we are happy! Could the restless, feverish ambitious heart be still, but for a moment still, and yield itself, without one further aspiring throb, to its enjoyment, then were I happy -yes, thrice happy!-Outre-Mer.

APRIL SHOWERS. April showers bring May flowers, Also mud and sneezes; and Amorous cats to tempt brickbats,

When blow the midnight breezes.

ly?" inquired the hostess in a tone of hereafter.] onformity with this admirable cusmingled with a slight but unmis- appear hereafter.] was about to serve. Well, what could one say? Deeply rooted as our re- His remarks will appear hereafter.] sinner knows of his own knowledge ligious practices may be there was the hostess to be considered. So we mere- dressed the house. His remarks will ly said that we keep it off and on, but appear hereafter.] invariably suspend penance when the food is something we are especially fond of.

COULD you have done better?

Comin' an' Goin'. He kicks before he ever is born. Kicks after, an' sheds many a tear,

But it ain't doin' him any good. "He's here because he's here." He was squeezed into the world and If he don't look what he's about You kin take it from me, by heck, He's goin' to get sqeezed out.

D. B. H.

"I am a frequent patron of the street cars," writes D. L. B., "and I invar- Not all of their valorous deeds have iably give my seat to a woman or girl distinctly remember being thanked three times. The other 997 times I was made to feel that I was a trespasser in the seat I occupied."

THERE are women and girls who thank a man for a car seat as though it deceives no person but ourselves. he were a human being. There are writers recently pointed out, it isn't a A man who pretends to be greater others who thank him as though he The difference between what is marker to the yearly soil wash of the than he really is, is a laughing stock; were a necessary evil. The rest are a woman that dresses like a peacock unconscious of his existence. And yet and struts like that vain bird, is de- men are still known to surrender their

> Where Angels Fear to Tread. "Calling on the sick:"-This amiaclass. She is a butt for the laughter ble custom is a survival of the loga rule we pass for what we really are, fensible when neighbors were few and far between, and the doctor a halfpalm ourselves off upon the public day's journey away. Even then it is not do the sufferer more harm than good. The bedside of the dying was crowded with useless visitors. Every caller expected to be admitted to the patient he or she might be,-and discuss the chances of recovery, and dolefully comment on the outcome of similar cases. In these days of skilled physicians and trained nurses at Hand, calls on the sick are a mistaken kindness. Ask the doctors. Stop it.

AS anticipated, the San Francisco hoels have announced that there will be no increase of rates during the Panama exposition. They expect to have them as high as anybody can reach before the exposition opens.

Whaddaya Mean, Hereafter? (Congressional Record.) [Mr. Kinkaid of Nebraska addressed

"Do you keep Lent very religious- the house. His remarks will appear [Mr. Greene of Massachusetts addressed the house. His remarks will [Mr. Igoe addressed the house. His remarks will appear hereafter.] [Mr. Finley addressed the house. [Mr. Patton of Pennsylvania ad-

IN the next world perhaps we will have more time and inclination to read

'A STRING of black bass attached to a young man in a raincoat and a pair of fishing boots created a near riot on Main st. because the young men in wet weather articles did not satisfactorily reply to where? and when? and

> The True Heroine. (Lafayette Journal.)

Not all of our heroine's names are enrolled In story and song of victorious

On tablets and scrolls in historical

As mighty and brave is the woman On whom lovely visions of fashion

Who dauntlessly smiling, turns firmly

And purchases common-sense garments instead!

VICE PRES. MARSHALL has faith the holding power of a kiss. He beieves a daily application will prevent liverce. And yet, don't you know, you see men every day that you wonder any woman of gool taste could live with, let alone kissing them.

To our mind it is better To leave it to her; If she wants a kiss, all right, As she may prefer: But if the look in her eyes Her submission belies. 'Twere better, perhaps to defer.

-N. P. Jones.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY

BULLY FOR J. J. PASTORIZA. J. J. Pastoriza is tax commissioner of Houston, Texas. About a month ago he received a letter from E. W. Prescott of Boston who said that he had furnished city and town assessors in Massachusetts "with authentic information of the stock holdings of their residents in foreign corporaurge but the publican's plea, 'God be tions, which stock is taxable under merciful to me a sinner." Those vain the Massachusetts law." His kindphilosophers who find fault with Jesus ness, he said, "resulted in the taxafor teaching humility, show either tion of several million dollars' worth ignorance of moral qualities of ex- of personal property which had not treme malignity against Jesus Christ. been declared by the owners, and thus Persistently sticking to a sound idea humbleth himself shall be exalted," Houston authorities would like to have such information in regard to 4. God's Approbation Is the Highest residents of that city, offering to sell ommends the preparation and enact-every-day stealing, to take in the form of taxes any part of that which a man earns himself. The land values! of Houston produce more revenue than we need and we don't have to and a diadem of beauty, of which no brought about by Tax Commissioner about 60,000 words of oratory.

POWER TO SUBSIDIZE NOT AF-FECTED.

be deprived of its business, no matter printing and distributing this record? The plans for A. L. Brick's residence what the canal tolls are. The freight When one pauses to consider that to transport freight free of charge it may well startle the public. Sam Simen of Wabash is visiting would still be unable to compete with | Continuously the government is enforce the 1 o'clock saloon closing Grand Rapids News. ordinance caused much confusion, legal controversy and some disorder. Mayor Mitchel inherited the problem The judge looked at the prisoner and pondered long and deeply upon keenly for a few moments, and then it. It was understood that he had said: reached certain "liberal" conclusions, "It strikes me forcibly I have seen but in order to guard against error your face before." prominent editor, a respected hotel-, some time to restore order.

[ keeper and other citizens of representative character were on the com-

In a unanimous report this committee recommends the issuance of a generous number of all-night licenses. t would have food and drink served n such establishments without question or restriction, on the theory that New York has legious of night workers who are entitled to facilities equa. to those of day workers. But cabaret performances, dancing and music the committee would permit only until 2 a. m,-which means an hour's extension as compared with existing regulations. The committee, finally, recment of "an excise law that can be enforced"-the present one notoriously being honored in the breach several respects.

The press agrees with the curiew committee on all points. The God then promotes him to the highest property; we consider it common, for the benefit of "orderly pleasureseekers." One o'clock is too early to send these home by stopping the dancing and vaudeville affairs in the restaurants. But to dismiss them at 2 is to put them to bed about 3, and subject our citizens to the ordeal of that enables them to get up in time the seventh degree, or put them in a for their daily routine. Such noelves with exaltation and honor; it position where they will have to lie, tions may seem strange to millions of is character, or in other words God perjure themselves, and send their Americans, but New York knows it-

WORDS, WORDS, WORDS! While the Sims resolution for canal like a bull pup to a bone made Ben a ourselves about honor and renown, or man living in St. Louis, Portland, tolls repeal stood certain of victory care what people may think about us, San Francisco and other cities in the before the house Tuesday, and when but let us only be concerned about United States: Houston does not there was no longer any hope that The secret of success in business loving God and serving him faithfully, punish him for telling the truth about speechmaking could alter votes, repconsists in supplying to the public loving little children, helping our fel- his personal property, and does not resentatives, according to the estimate lows, and the God of all the earth will reward him for heroic lying about it. of Sam Grey, chief of the house stenwhat it wants. But that requires first place upon our head a crown of glory, That moral change in Houston was ographers, delivered themselves of

In addition to that, about 60,000 more words were recorded under "leave to print," In other words, had any average-

If democrats believe coastwise sized newspaper of the United States shipping requires a subsidy-and the undertaken to give its readers the tolls exemption is nothing else than proceedings in full, it would have a subsidy-there has been no "sur- taken six telegraph wires working render" by congress of its power to steadily to have transmitted the create such subsidy. The govern- "copy" and would have filled nearly ment of the United States can sub- 100 solid columns, or about 14 pages. sidize its coastwise or its oversea Is there a subscriber of any newsshipping as it may desire. The re- paper in the land who would have Mrs. Virginius Nicar had a narrow peal of the subsidy provision of the cared to wade through this prodigious escape from drowning at Eureka Panama canal action no way deprives mass? Can the recording of this stupendous blast of wind-for two-There is no "surrender" in the in- thirds of it can be little less-serve Mrs. Nicar was rescued by her son. | terest of the Tehuantepec railway. | any practical purpose when perma-Ben King, the Michigan poet, was The moment the Panama caral is nently recorded? Why must the govfound dead in bed at Bowling Green, cpened the Tehuantepec railw. will ernment be compelled to pay for on W. Washington av. were placed in charges of the Tehuantepec railway this is just one day's record and that are $4 a ton, and this route involves every day the same thing is going for-Misses Lena and Julia Hickey enter- transshipment from steamship to ward in both houses of congress unrailroad and railroad to steamship, der varying degrees of stress, the task Miss Emma Newperth has re- Even if the Tehuantepec railway were confronting congressional printers > printed matter that is not even good pantry shelf paper, because it is not NIGHT PLEASURES IN NEW YORK cut to the right size. Some day this The late Mayor Gaynor had much may be curtailed. Until then the Controuble with the late-or early morn- pressional Record will continue to be ing-pleasure-seekers. His efforts to the laughing stock of the nation .-

SAME AS USUAL.

he appointed a "curfew committee" "That's where I always wear it,"

Will insure your health by keeping the air cool. clean and pure-your family against accidents from fire, burns, explosions, or injury through falling.

Now that Spring is about to be ushered in you will be cleaning house. Again you are confronted by the same old problem of repapering those rooms and buying new decorations and so it is every year, so long as you use an inferior open flame illuminant that is blackening and blistering your ceilings and walls.

When you have electricity in your home you have the only clean and convenient as well as the safest illuminant that has ever been put on the market.

The tungsten lamp has made Electric Service so economical, that every home, large or small can afford it.

Our special housewiring plan makes it easy for every housekeeper to install and enjoy electrical comforts.

We are wiring houses and furnishing fixtures at actual COST of time and material required, allowing twelve months to pay without in-

Furthermore we give THREE MONTHS FREE light to anyone wiring an already built

Call 462 either phone and ask our representative to call.

Indiana & Michigan Electric Company

220-222 W. Colfax Ave.

I furnish the complete equipment, from the first call to the er Drugs by South Bend's Leading Optometrist and Manufacturing Optician. 2221/2 So. Michigan Seet.

Let me send you FREE PERFUME Write today for a testing bottle of as the living blossom. For handkerchief, atomizer and bath. Fine after shaving. All the value is in the perfume-you don't pay extra for a fancy bottle. The quality is wonderful. The price only 75c. (6 oz.). Send 4c. for the little bottle-enough for 50 handkerchiefs. Write today. PARFUMERIE ED. PINAUD, Department M. ED. PINAUD BUILDING NEW YORK

TITLE INSURANCE

A Title Insurance policy will not change a bad title into a good one any more than a fire insurance will keep your building from burning. It will protect you from loss, however, should anyone claim an interest in the property insured.

Indiana Title and Loan Company Title Building, Corner Main and Center Sts.

"Masterpieces of Plumbing"

referred to by our satisfied customers. We do no cheap work. We believe in doing everything as well as a master plumber can do it, and charging according to the excellence of our refore employ us next time. Take no employ us next time. Take no chances!

122 E. Jefferson Blvd. Home Phone 5994. Bell Phone 626

LADIES' READY-TO WEAR